

RECORDING THE EVIDENCE

Use the following rubric to assess students' notes on the Criteria for Media Assessment. Award intermediate marks for answers falling between the descriptors.

	Underdeveloped	Competent	Expert
Relevance of evidence to the criteria.	Few comments are related to the indicated criteria. 1	Many comments are related to the indicated criteria. 3	All comments are related to the indicated criteria. 5
Provides specific information.	Much of the information is vague. 1	Some of the information is vague. 3	Provides much detailed information. 5
Covers important concepts.	Mentions very few important ideas about the media portrayal of aboriginal people. 1	Mentions some important ideas about the media portrayal of aboriginal people. 3	Mentions many important ideas about the media portrayal of aboriginal people. 5

Comments:

TOTAL

/15

JUSTIFYING THE DECISION

Use the following rubric to assess students' decisions about media portrayal of Aboriginal people. Award intermediate marks for answers falling between the descriptors.

	Underdeveloped	Competent	Expert
Presents specific evidence	Makes no reference to specific evidence. 1	Refers to a few examples of specific evidence. 3	Refers extensively to specific evidence . 5
Uses a variety of media types.	Makes no reference to any media source. 1	Refers to a few different media types (ex. newspaper and web site). 3	Refers to many different types of media. 5

Comments:

TOTAL

/15