

Canadian Soldier

1. He was a brave Canadian soldier
And he was young and he was strong
He never shied away from danger
Some say it's right, some say it's wrong
2. His noble heart would not surrender
The night grew fierce, some hid, some cried
Come morning light, will they remember?
The way he fought, the way he died.
3. In foreign lands, the wind is sighing
The rain has come and washed away
The tears that fell while he lay dying
A mother's child has passed away
4. So bow your head, and stand in silence
Then lift your eyes and sing the song
About a brave, Canadian soldier
The gift he gave, the life that's gone.
5. He was a brave Canadian soldier
And he was young and he was strong
He never shied away from danger
Some say it's right, some say it's wrong.
